

2023 Honoree:

James T. Powers, AIA

Jim Powers of East Northport is this year's honoree... on the 20th Anniversary of the last time he was our golf honoree.

Jim is a Past Treasurer, Organizer and Golf Chairman of our Division and has been a member for 25 years.

Jim serves as the Chief Growth and Development Officer of H2M, the region's largest architectural & engineering firm serving the Town of Huntington and most municipalities on Long Island, along with four other states.

Jim is the President Emeritus of the Townwide Fund of Huntington, serving as President for over ten years. The Irish American Building Society, the Visiting Nurse Services, and the Boy Scouts have also honored Jim in the past. Jim serves on many boards in the construction industry and is often asked to speak or moderate panels through the design and build industry.

Jim is the proud father of three sons and a daughter and extremely proud of his four granddaughters.

Paul G. Costello

Beloved Brother

The Paul G. Costello Memorial Golf Outing is being established to honor our longtime friend, brother and past Treasurer of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Div 4.

A man with extraordinary intellect and unwavering devotion to his friends, colleagues and brothers. Paul was a true Hibernian through and through. When March rolled around it was his time to shine. Paul will be truly missed.

A huge supporter of our Food Bank proceeds will go to enhance its mission.
